Subject: RE: Ethics Request: DCASE Employee Travel for Dylan Rice, Frayne Lewis, David Chavez

Hi Steve,

On behalf of Frayne Lewis, David Chavez, and myself at DCASE, this email is to confirm receipt of Choose Chicago's in-kind gift of travel and registration expenses for the three of us to participate in the ChicagoMade activations, and to promote Chicago's music industry at the 2016 South By Southwest (SXSW) Conference and Festival in Austin, TX.

See below and attached our individual reports and schedules, provided by each of us.

Thank you in advance. Let us know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Dylan Rice

I will report here an account of my activities as it pertains to my travel to Austin TX March 16 – 18 2016 to participate in our City of Chicago representation at the South by Southwest Music Festival and Conference under the partnership umbrella of Chicago Made. DCASE, Choose Chicago, and World Business Chicago were the principle partners of this initiative. As part of this partnership I received a music badge, roundtrip airfare, and accommodations Wednesday - Friday from Choose Chicago in order to produce and stage manage our official Chicago Made Music Showcase related to our overall activation.

The purpose of our travel was to carry out a collaborative initiative to represent Chicago's creative industries at what is considered the biggest and most important gathering in the nation for the tech, and music industry. This platform allowed us an enormous opportunity for national exposure and connectivity with some of the most important industry business and thought leaders of today.

I arrived Wednesday afternoon in Austin TX

Thursday, March 17, 2016

I produced our official Chicago Made music showcase at The Main (610 E. 6th St.) in partnership with SXSW. Presented performances by 10 Chicago-based music acts and one video artist.

The rest of my time in Austin was spent on my own personal time and budget attending free music showcases as a fan.
