Chicago, Illinois 60602

Dear Chair Flores,

I am writing to you today to express my opposition to the planned development located at 4041, 4115 & 4147 West Ogden Avenue and 2309 South Keeler Avenue in my Ward.

Since April of 2023 members of my North Lawndale Economic Development Advisory Committee have been regularly meeting with the developer, IDI Logistics, 15 times in total. At the beginning of the process I made it very clear, along with the support of my Advisory Committee, that we would not support any development that would include transportation, distribution or logistics at this site. The committee members also expressed that they wanted to come to an agreement for community benefits before they would support a planned development at this location.

As currently written, the planned development for 4041, 4115 & 4147 West Ogden Avenue and 2309 South Keeler Avenue includes transportation, distribution and logistics as a use on this site by an unknown future tenant, despite the unanimous opposition of the Advisory Committee and myself. Moreover, despite attempts to find a mutually acceptable community benefits package, the developer, IDI, has still not come to an agreement with my advisory committee on what this package would consist of.

Since IDI has not been able to come to an agreement for any community benefits, nor has IDI listened to the North Lawndale Economic Advisory Committee in developing their plan for the site, I must state my opposition to this planned development and urge the Commission to reject this proposal.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Rodríguez
Aldersperson, 22nd Ward

Hello Michael,

I am writing you in regards to the vote going up today opposing the demolitions of valuable community spaces and businesses on Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski in favor of a trucking logistics center. This is detrimental to our urban communities and will create more traffic and pollution. We need to preserve the history of Chicago. Demolition of these businesses is erasure of our community. Hello, I am writing to you as a member of the community the city plans of building a truck logistics center in. My community already faces some of the highest air pollution in this city, this is due to to the high concentration of factories & transport trucks. Two components that affect the quality of life of residents, many which are young children. Young children that have to walk to school & see the traffic of trucks going to the factory breathing in all their exhaust, not only then but also during recess, when playing in their own back yard or a neighborhood park. Not only does this neighborhood have a high population of youth but also the elderly , in 2020 the neighborhood rallied together to install filtration system into homes due to their proximity to factories (specifically around Pulaski & 31st) . That being said building this truck logistics center is purposefully ignoring the work & concerns that my community voices. It is environmental wrong & hazardous to our communities health.

Thank you for your time ,

Anais Macias

As a resident of Chicago it is my duty to write to you and tell you that I and many others oppose the planned destruction of local business and buildings on South Ogden Avw from S Pulaski to S Keeler.

This city, and especially its south and southwest sides, already have an air pollution problem and adding more pollutant emitting trucks in this area will have negative effects on the residents of Little Village and Lawdale for years to come.

Please stop this nonsense. Less trucks, more healthy citizens!

Dear Plan Commission

My name is Chris White and I serve the role pf facilitator for the Citywide Equitable Development Roundtable. We have a newsletter that reaches around 500 organizational leaders throughout Chicago. About a 150 of them have come to our regular monthly meetings and we have around 30 formal members.

I have been hearing from several different Lawndale and Little Village members of my coalition as well as from community groups that they have grave concerns about this proposal for 4041 Ogden Avenue which is suspected of being a future Amazon warehouse.

The public meeting about this development was not well advertised and did not happen until Tuesday night.

My members who live near the site would like to request that you delay this vote so that stakeholders have more time to address concerns with the developer and the Alderpersons of the affected wards.

Sincerely,
Chris White

Hello,

My name is Dana and I am a Chicago resident. I am writing to oppose the demolition of historic buildings and small businesses along Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski, in order to build a truck logistics center. I understand that City Council will be voting on this matter soon.

I urge you to think about your community and the people living in it—walkable communities and visual reminders of our history allow us to feel more connected to this place and to each other. A truck logistics center does nothing of the sort. It will instead add to air pollution in the area, negatively impacting community members' health.

Feedback from the community is vital when making decisions of this magnitude, especially feedback from those living in the area.

I urge you to reconsider this demolition.

To whom it may concern,

I recently learned about the plan to make room for a logistics center on Ogden. As someone who uses Ogden Ave. multiple times on a daily basis & who grew up between spaces in the neighborhoods of Lawndale, I am shocked but not surprised that such thing is being proposed.

I am not in favor of this idea and I believe that this needs more critical thought and analysis, especially as we already have major logistics centers nearby and very little green space around. Our neighborhoods aren't in need of more carbon footprint or pollution. Please consider our health and quality of life before making such a decision.

Thank you,

NO to Rezoning and Demolition

Jackie Guataquira <jguataquira207@gmail.com>

Wed 5/15/2024 9:05 AM

[Warning: External email]

Good morning,

I am writing to urge the council and ward NOT to move forward with the vote for a zoning change and the demolition of buildings along Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski.

Many Chicago residents, especially across the south and west sides of the City, are constantly facing the destruction of their neighborhoods to make room for various industrial implementations. The aim to rezone and demolish the aforementioned area to make room for a truck logistics center frankly does not benefit the community.

Demolition of historic buildings and small businesses strips a community of its character, and ultimately affects any community members that may own and operate businesses, or even wish to do so.

As a south side resident, I am constantly reminded of the industrial landscape I reside in. Every day I hear trucks and trains; I experience the lack of resources, wishing for the amenities other Chicago neighborhoods have—grocery stores, coffee shops, restaurants.

To know that further industrialization is being considered is disheartening, disappointing, and frustrating. The community deserves more.

Therefore, I once again urge the council and ward to vote NO on rezoning and demolishing the buildings on Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski.

Best,
Jackie Guataquira

To:CPC <CPC@cityofchicago.org>

[Warning: External email]

Hi Planning Commission,

Please note that the planned demolition of historic businesses and small shops along Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski to build a planned demolition center is 100%:

1. Out of character for the community people have tried so hard to build
2. An example of weak urban leadership by those who claim to protect the most vulnerable, by inviting extra noise, pollution, and risky vehicles into one of Chicago's most tightly packed urban corridors
3. Going to disrupt the walkability/bikeability of the area
4. A bad idea

We drive into this area often from the Southwest burbs and we've noted numerous times that the Southwest Side is completely swamped with heavy truck traffic, something that has negative impacts on actual human beings and causes increased rates of emissions and thus chronic illness, causes increased rates of deadly traffic fatalities, and so on. If you really love the community you claim to serve, please don't disrupt it with this logistics center. It's simply not needed. People in the neighborhood aren't going to benefit. Don't sell out the city to the lowest bidder, please. If anything, this area has inspired our interest in potentially moving back to the city and I'd hate to see it tarnished further by irresponsible development. Open that up for housing, a grocery store, or something beneficial please. And please consider providing us some better bike lanes on the south side while you're at it. I hate driving in and Metra still has crap for weekend service.

Before voting, please also read this article from Block Club Chicago on how you all have pigeonholed this undesirable land-use into a corner of the city full of the place's most vulnerable already: <https://blockclubchicago.org/2024/04/02/a-sea-of-trucks-disproportionately-pollutes-black-and-brown-neighborhoods-in-chicago/>

To:CPC <CPC@cityofchicago.org>

[Warning: External email]

Good morning,

I am writing as a resident of Little Village to express my opposition to the proposed plan to demolish several architecturally significant warehouses south of Ogden Ave. To keep it short, my reasons for this opposition include first and foremost a guaranteed increase in semi traffic, within a community which has already repeatedly been identified by the City itself as a neighborhood disproportionately bearing the brunt of industry and air pollution. This is an environmental justice issue, as the City has repeatedly expressed, and allowing this development would be in direct opposition to any path towards a cleaner future for this corridor.

Beyond that, allowing a massive distro center on this parcel will irreparably hamper any future possibility of creating a vibrant transit-oriented neighborhood the likes of which are models in the rest of the city. The area in questions has historically suffered from excessive auto traffic. These warehouses are directly near the CTA pink line stations, and could be converted to other adaptive re-uses including lofts and live-work spaces. Allowing this development will permanently hamper the residential desirability of the Ogden corridor, at the precise time as plans are being floated for a redesign of the street.

Finally, the warehouses have architectural merit in the spirit of the city's great industrial past and have value as cited by Preservation Chicago

<https://www.preservationchicago.org/ogden-keeler-industrial-buildings/>

This decision is incredibly short sighted, lacking in vision, and I encourage those in a position to do so to reject this proposal.

Thank you,

Matt Lilly

To whom it may concern:

I have only now been aware of the proposed plan for demolition for a trucks logistics center around the community of Ogden/Keeler/Pulaski. Why is that companies plan these huge demolitions around areas that are already severely affected by environmental dangers? I am totally against this idea, and I am sure that those who live in the community are too.

Have you been made aware that the air quality in this area is one of the worst in the US? Because of truck pollution? And now someone thought it would be a nice idea to build a whole logistics center in a place that is already vulnerable to pollution?

I would like for someone, anyone, to deeply consider moving it to a place where it won't affect a small community. Postpone and GET COMMUNITY INPUT because there was a lack, hardly any notice to those living there.

Black and brown communities already face complexities that those in office will never in their life will. We don't work our entire lives to live in areas that erect surprise demolitions. It is sickening to think about. Would you want to live blocks from one? To those who say they don't care, are lying through their teeth. There are other options.

Dear Members of the Plan Commission,

My name is Sara Heymann and I'm a resident of the 25th ward, and a member of Únete, an all volunteer community organization that focuses on housing and development in Little Village and North Lawndale. Some North Lawndale neighbors reached out to us about a week and a half ago sounding the alarm about the plan to demolish dozens of small businesses along Ogden from Keeler to Pulaski to build ANOTHER truck logistics center in it's place. To our surprise, this was up for a vote in the plan commission. There has been next to no community input on such a gigantic change to our community that will bring more trucks, air pollution, and erase our history. All along Ogden avenue, which the city is planning to make more "pedestrian friendly". Our community has been clear: we don't want any more truck traffic, air pollution. What happened to the cumulative impact assessment that so many environmental advocates, including ones from Little Village, worked so hard for? I am absolutely opposed to this demolition, and ask that you delay the vote on Thursday.

Thank you,

Sara Heymann

Good morning CPC,

I'm writing to you respectfully as a long time resident, home owner in the little village community, and U.S. navy veteran, to communicate to you my opposition to the development project on 4041 W. Ogden Ave., Chicago, IL. 60623. I do not believe it is in the best interest of the community it's health and mine based off how much air pollution it will create. Thanks.

Very Respectfully,

Wenceslao Garciacarrillo

Little Village home owner, U.S. Navy Vet.
